Mark your calendars for the Nile Halloween Family Funfest on Saturday, October 27th. From 11-4pm, the Nile Nightmares creatures retreat to their coffins, caves and crypts, allowing families to enjoy a much tamer haunted house experience. Admission is just $10 per child, parents/guardians get in free! Halloween candy awaits those children brave enough to experience the various haunted attractions.

They will be hosting a Trunk or Treat event with decorated vehicles and even more Halloween goodies. Enjoy bouncy houses, cotton candy, face painting, vendor booths, and plenty of great food.

Darkness sets the stage for the return of the ever-popular "Fright Light Night" on October 31st. On this final night of haunting, the Nile's haunted grounds go pitch-black, leaving you with only your cunning and a special finger flashlight (available at the box office) to guide the way.

If you thought October was the only scary month of the year, you'd be dead wrong. This December, Nile Nightmares is summoning all its evil elves and crazed creatures to give you a special holiday gift that you will not soon forget. Join us for some horror-day cheer and see if you're on Krampus' naughty list this year. Stay tuned to our website for dates and times of our new Halloween in December event.
